

I am writing in Support of the FCC opening the TV Broadcast bands for use by unlicensed part 15 devices. In my part of rural IL there is much wasted spectrum in the TV bands, but all the local Wireless ISP's say the 2.4 ISM bands are full and the limited 900 Mhz band is noisy due to adjacent high power paging. So please grant added spectrum in the unoccupied TV bands as soon as possible!

Thank You